Chalice Lighting	“Delight” by Keisha Shepard
	On the second day of the year, The birds played in the rain. All the robins, cardinals, crows, Chickadees and phoebes It was like they all had epiphanies To delight themselves and me.
	So I will sit at the window awhile ore. It is pure joy to watch them explore. What better things to do than this? Nothing delights Like time well spent, Marveling at the day’s natural occurrence, It’s rhythm.
